Donald J. Trump, et al.,
Defendants.)))

NOTICE OF FILING OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE RECORD

Defendants, by and through undersigned counsel, today served on Plaintiffs the administrative record for purposes of this lawsuit. That record, certified by relevant officials at the Departments of Justice and Homeland Security, contains all materials—to the best of the certifiers' knowledge, information, and belief—considered by the Departments in promulgating the interim final rule titled "Asylum Eligibility and Procedural Modifications, 84 Fed. Reg. 33,829 (July 16, 2019). Defendants have served the record via email, and are sending a copy separately via U.S. mail. Defendants will also provide the court with a paper copy of the record, and are filing the record electronically.

Defendants also respectfully note that they reserve the right to supplement the record if they identify additional materials that were part of the record subsequent to this filing. The interim final rule is premised on significant factual material contained in myriad documents held between two agencies and their subcomponents. Complex coordination between these agencies is required to produce a full and complete record. In in order to facilitate effective review of plaintiffs' motion, the Departments have been working diligently to compile the administrative record since before this Court's scheduling order (Minute Order, July 18, 2019, 5:51 P.M.), but given the extremely truncated time in which the Defendants have worked to produce a record, it remains possible that supplementation may be warranted.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH H. HUNT Assistant Attorney General

SCOTT G. STEWART
Deputy Assistant Attorney General
